

PROBATE NOTES FOR DEPARTMENT 5, OCTOBER 19, 2026

1. Conservatorship of Alexander Juniewicz (PR12158). Review hearing. No appearance is required. Pending receipt of investigator's Probate Code § 1850 report and subject to any concerns raised therein, the Court anticipates finding by clear and convincing evidence that (1) the conservatee is unable to provide properly for his personal needs for physical health, food, clothing, or shelter; and (2) a general conservatorship is the least restrictive alternative needed for the conservatee's protection, taking into consideration the conservatee's abilities and capacities with current and possible supports. The conservatorship of the person of Alexander Juniewicz shall remain in effect. Although the conservatee's condition is static and sustained, the conservators continue to reside some distance away and therefore the Court intends to set the matter for annual review with next review date set for October 18, 2027, at 10:00 a.m. in Department 5.
2. Conservatorship of Breanne Wright (PR9958). Review hearing. No appearance is required. Pending receipt of investigator's Probate Code § 1850 report and subject to any concerns raised therein, the Court anticipates finding by clear and convincing evidence that (1) the conservatee is unable to provide properly for his personal needs for physical health, food, clothing, or shelter; and (2) a general conservatorship is the least restrictive alternative needed for the conservatee's protection, taking into consideration the conservatee's abilities and capacities with current and possible supports. The Court further intends to find that the conservatee is capable of communicating, with or without reasonable accommodations, a desire to participate in the voting process. The conservatorship of the person of Breanne Wright shall remain in effect. Matter to be set for biannual review, with next review date set for October 16, 2028, at 10:00 a.m. in Department 5.
3. Conservatorship of Dominic Dirubio (PR12643). Review hearing. No appearance is required. Pending receipt of investigator's Probate Code § 1850 report and subject to any concerns raised therein, the Court anticipates finding by clear and convincing evidence that (1) the conservatee is unable to provide properly for his personal needs for physical health, food, clothing, or shelter; and (2) a general conservatorship is the least restrictive alternative needed for the conservatee's protection, taking into consideration the conservatee's abilities and capacities with current and possible supports. The conservatorship of the person of Dominic Dirubio shall remain in effect. In light of the conservatee's significantly vulnerable status, the Court intends to set the matter for annual review with next review date set for October 18, 2027, at 10:00 a.m. in Department 5.
4. Conservatorship of Gracelynn Maria Kleier (PR12410). Review hearing. No appearance is required. Pending receipt of investigator's Probate Code § 1850 report and subject to any concerns raised therein, the Court anticipates finding by clear and convincing evidence that (1) the conservatee is unable to provide properly for his personal needs for physical health, food, clothing, or shelter; and (2) a general conservatorship is the least restrictive alternative needed for the conservatee's protection, taking into consideration the conservatee's abilities and capacities with current and possible supports. Conservatee is unable to communicate, with or without reasonable accommodations, a desire to participate in the voting process. The conservatorship of the person of Gracelynn Maria Kleier shall remain in effect. In light of conservatee's significantly vulnerable status, the Court intends to set the matter for annual review with next review date set for October 18, 2027, at 10:00 a.m. in Department 5.

The Court further intends to find that conservatee is unable to manage finances or resist undue influence, and to set the matter for further review of conservator's accounting on November 16, 2026, at 10:00 a.m. in Department 5. No appearance shall be required if an accounting is filed before that date.

5. Conservatorship of Jacob Fowles (PR12409). Review hearing. No appearance is required. Pending receipt of investigator's Probate Code § 1850 report and subject to any concerns raised therein, the Court anticipates finding by clear and convincing evidence that (1) the conservatee is unable to provide properly for his personal needs for physical health, food, clothing, or shelter; and (2) a general conservatorship is the least restrictive alternative needed for the conservatee's protection, taking into consideration the conservatee's abilities and capacities with current and possible supports. The Court further intends to find that the conservatee is capable of communicating, with or without reasonable accommodations, a desire to participate in the voting process. The conservatorship of the person of Jacob Fowles shall remain in effect. Matter to be set for biannual review, with next review date set for October 16, 2028, at 10:00 a.m. in Department 5.

The Court further intends to find that conservatee is unable to manage finances or resist undue influence, and to set the matter for further review of conservator's accounting on November 16, 2026, at 10:00 a.m. in Department 5. No appearance shall be required if an accounting is filed before that date.

6. Conservatorship of Julian Alan Diaz (PR12809). Review hearing. No appearance is required. The Court, having received, read, and considered the court investigator's Probate Code § 1850 report, intends to grant the Petitioners' petition for appointment as conservators of the person of their son, Julian Alan Diaz, finding by clear and convincing evidence that (1) the conservatee is unable to provide properly for his personal needs for physical health, food, clothing, or shelter; and (2) a general conservatorship is the least restrictive alternative needed for the conservatee's protection, taking into consideration the conservatee's abilities and capacities with current and possible supports. The Court further intends to find that there is no need to appoint counsel for conservatee as the proposed conservators are his parents and he does not appear to have the capacity to understand the proceedings as his limitations are reflected in the Capacity Declaration. The conservatorship of the person of Julian Alan Diaz shall remain in effect. Matter to be set for annual review, with next review date set for October 18, 2027, at 10:00 a.m. in Department 5.

7. Conservatorship of Norma Davies Blackmer (PR12794). No appearance is required. The Court notes that the conservator filed a Notice of Conservatee's Death on September 9, 2026, informing the Court of conservatee's death on August 20, 2026. Having reviewed the Second Account and Report of Conservator of the Estate and Petition for Allowance of Fees to Conservator of the Estate and Attorney for Conservator of the Estate and for Reduction of Bond filed September 4, 2026, the Court intends to find as follows: (1) the account and reports cover the period from January 1, 2025, through June 30, 2026; (2) the account and report, and the reported acts by conservator of the estate, as more particularly set forth in the account and report filed September 8, 2026, are accurate and appropriate and are therefore approved; (2) the sum of $23,567.75 is allowed for Zachary Young, the conservator of the estate, as fees for services rendered, (3) the conservator of the estate is directed to pay Julie E. Hitt, Moss & Locke, the sum of $6,900 for legal services rendered in connection with the conservatorship and $1,282.79 as reimbursement of costs advanced, and (4) the bond is reduced to $75,000, based on the distribution of conservatee's IRA account to the named beneficiary and the resulting reduction of the estate value to $74,800. The matter is set for further review pending the filing of conservator's final accounting and distribution report with next review date set for October 18, 2027, at 10:00 a.m. in Department 5. No appearance will be required if the final accounting and distribution report is filed before that date.

8. Guardianship of Carter Daniel Moore (PR12503). No appearance is required. Having received, read and considered the Confidential Guardianship Status Report (GC-251) filed September 21, 2026, the Court intends to find by a preponderance of the evidence that the guardianship remains necessary and convenient, and that the guardians continue to serve the ward's best interests. The Court intends to set an annual review date, with next hearing set for October 18, 2027. No appearance will be required if a Confidential Guardianship Status Report (GC-251) is filed prior to that date.
9. Guardianship of Gabriel Ramirez (PR11538). No appearance is required. Having received, read and considered the Confidential Guardianship Status Report (GC-251) filed September 28, 2026, the Court intends to find by a preponderance of the evidence that the guardianship remains necessary and convenient, and that the guardians continue to serve the ward's best interests.
